

Great North Pharmacy Research Collaborative Regional Conference

July 5th 2019, St James Park, Newcastle upon Tyne

Agenda

@GtNorthPharmRes #gnpharmconf19

	Heroes Club
08:30-09:20	Registration, Networking, Exhibition and Poster Viewing
	Moncur Suite
09:20-09:30	Chairs Welcome	Laura Tweddle Lead Pharmacist for Education, Training and Patient Safety South Tees Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
09:30-10:15	Keynote Speaker: Too much of a good thing? Reducing polypharmacy to improve patient outcomes	Dr Adam Todd Reader in Pharmaceutical Public Health Newcastle University
	Pre-Registration Presentations
10:15-10:30	Assessing the Safety and Accuracy of Insulin Prescribing and Self-Administration Trust-wide	Kimrin Sohal Pre-registration Trainee County Durham and Darlington NHS Foundation Trust
10:30-10:45	Practitioner Views on Emerging General Practice Roles for Pre-registration Pharmacists	Maria Jinks Pre-registration Trainee Northumbria Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust
10:45-11:00	Proton pump inhibitor (PPI) prescribing in dual anti-platelet therapy (DAPT)	Katherine Emma Stutz Pre-registration Trainee South Tees Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
	Heroes Club
11:00-11:30	Refreshments, Networking, Exhibition and Poster Viewing
	Moncur Suite
11:30-11:45	Anti-emetic Prescribing at the Northern Centre for Cancer Care	Freya Cato Pre-registration Trainee The Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals Foundation Trust
11:45-12:00	An Audit of the Prophylactic Use of Filgrastim in Patients Receiving R-CHOP for Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma	Sherief El-Shakankery Pre-registration Trainee The Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals Foundation Trust
12:00-12:20	Research in Pharmacy: Should it be in the too hard to do box? How to access funding streams and CRN support for research delivery	Sue Hart Health Programme Manager AHSN NENC Dr Hilary Allan Research Delivery Manager

		NIHR CRN NENC
12:20-12:40	CHAMP 1 Study	Dr Duncan Stewart Senior Lecturer in Addictive Behaviours and Public Health UK University of York
12:40-13:00	One Year on from being the Regional Pre-Registration Project Winner 2018	Alastair Paterson Clinical Pharmacist Northumberland, Tyne and Wear NHS Foundation Trust
	Heroes Club
13:00-14:00	Lunch, Networking and Poster Judging
14:00-15:15	Breakout Sessions
Session One 14:00-14:15
Main Conference Room	Sir Bobby Robson	Joe Harvey
Collaborative Workplace Learning- How to make the most of everyday workplace learning opportunities (Integrated Care) David Gibson, and Aisha Majothi, Clinical Leadership Fellow, Health Education England	Antimicrobials in Clinically Futile Situations: A World Café Project (Medicines without Harm) Tanya Miah, Specialist Clinical Pharmacist, Northumbria Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust	Virtual Patient Technology to Teach Clinical Pharmacists NOAC Counselling – Preliminary Results of a Questionnaire Evaluation (Academia) Charlotte Richardson, Keele University
Movement Break
Session Two 14:20-14:35
Main Conference Room	Sir Bobby Robson	Joe Harvey
Hospital Pharmacist's Views on Training and Support Provided During Early Career Years (Academia) Jill Davison, Lead Clinical Pharmacist, Great North Clinical Pharmacy Network	An Explorative Qualitative-based Evaluation of Pharmacist Integration within Urgent Care Settings (Integrated Care) Sarah Browbank. IUC Pharmacist, NHS 111 Pharmacist Pilot	An Audit of Polypharmacy on a General Medical Ward (Medicines Without Harm) Savannah Rose Haworth, Newcastle University
Movement Break
Session Three 14:40-14:55
Main Conference Room	Sir Bobby Robson	Joe Harvey
Integrating the Pharmacy Service into Traditional Medical Roles in an Acute Setting (Integrated Care) Neil Gammack, Chief Pharmacist, Queen Elizabeth Hospital	The KidzMed Project - Teaching children to swallow tablet medication (Medicines Without Harm) Nicola Vasey, Senior Lead Clinical Pharmacist, The Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust	Acute Kidney Injury management in Primary Care: Exploring Healthcare Professionals' Attitudes and Perceptions (Academia) Alan Green, Academic Pharmacist Practitioner, University of Sunderland

Movement Break
Session Four 15:00-15:15
Main Conference Room	Sir Bobby Robson	Joe Harvey
Speaking Up a Team based Approach to Patient Safety (Integrated Care) Kay Fenwick, Northumbria Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust	Evaluation of an Advanced Pharmacist Practitioner Prescribing Cognitive Enhancing Medication CEM) within the Northumberland Memory Service (Medicines Without Harm) Laura Stavert, Clinical Pharmacist, Northumberland, Tyne and Wear NHS Foundation Trust	Investigation into the Prescribing Practice for Patients Post Renal Transplantation with Type II Diabetes Mellitus (Academia) Alan Green, Academic Pharmacist Practitioner, University of Sunderland
	Heroes Club
15:15-15:30	Refreshment Break and Networking
	Moncur Suite
15:30-15:50	Keynote Speaker	Paula Russell Lead Pharmacist Integrating Pharmacy and Medicines Optimisation (IPMO), Cumbria and the North East
15:50-16:15	Keynote Speaker: English Deprescribing Network (EDeN)	Emma McClay Co-chair and Executive Member English Deprescribing Network
16:16-16:25	Presentation of Awards
16:25-16:30	Closing Remarks
16:30 till late	Networking, Pitch Viewing and Drinks (at attendees cost)

In association with:

There is no sporting event on the day and no access to the sporting facilities for the delegates or speakers at this meeting.

This event has been supported by the following companies. The companies listed have in no way influenced the agenda:

Takeda, NAPP, Allergology Laboratory, Allergan, Omnicell, Rokshaw Ltd, Fresenius Kabi, Abbott, Lumos Diagnostics