

Maternal and Neonatal Safety Improvement Programme (MatNeoSIP) North East and North Cumbria (NENC) Patient Safety Network

16th September 2021
Timings are approximate

13:00	Welcome and Introduction	Julia Wood MatNeoSIP Lead – NENC Academic Health Science Network NENC
13:05	Programme Information	Julia Wood MatNeoSIP Lead – NENC Academic Health Science Network NENC
13:10	MatNeoSIP National Update	Charlie Merrick Senior Improvement Manager – Patient Safety Improvement Team NHS England and NHS Improvement
13:25	National Patient Safety Day	Karen Hooper MatNeoSIP Midwife Lead Academic Health Science Network NENC
13:35	Breast Feeding Update	Ros Nunn Infant Feeding and Maternal Healthy Weight Coordinator NENC ICS Public Health Prevention in Maternity (PHPiM) Team

13:45	Risk Education and potential future smoking projects	Julia Wood Karen Hooper
14.10	Break
14:20	Preterm Birth Part 1: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preterm Birth Clinics • Preterm Birth Regional Guideline • Preterm Birth Interventions 	Professor Steve Robson Clinical Lead (Obstetrics) for the Maternity Network and Local Maternity Systems (LMSs) Dr Alex Patience Consultant RVI Dr Gareth Waring Consultant RVI Karen Hooper MatNeoSIP Midwife Lead Academic Health Science Network NENC Dr Sundeep Harigapol Consultant Neonatologist - The Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust Clinical Lead - Northern Neonatal Network Julia Wood MatNeoSIP Lead – NENC Academic Health Science Network NENC

15:25	Break
15:30	Preterm Birth Part 2: Data and process metrics	Professor Steve Robson Clinical Lead (Obstetrics) for the Maternity Network and Local Maternity Systems (LMSs)
15:55	Closing remarks	Julia Wood MatNeoSIP Lead – NENC Academic Health Science Network NENC
16.00	Close	